NILES WEST ON THE MOVE

Gaze past the active classrooms and bustling hallways and an everpresent vision of student life at West emerges. Dispersed in activities ranging from A.F.S. to aeronautics, individuals combined efforts and ideals necessary in reaching their goals with pride. The addition of 600 students and faculty members from Niles East helped make the '80-'81 year anything but ordinary. The vast array of people brought new ideas, friendships, and, most of all, lots of fun. The mesh of students taught the meaning of cooperation and valuable teamwork. Together, we shared West's sweet success. While the world's concerns were focused on the presedential campaign, inflation, and the hostages in Iran, Niles West students shared worrries of electing a homecoming king and queen, paying $45.00 for Calvin Kleins, and serving time in the B.A.C. With a blend of diversity and originality, the people at West comprised a student body worth looking out for.

SPIRIT

WE'RE LOYAL TO YOU, NILES WEST

"Go Big Red" was a chant often shouted from exuberant Indian fans in freezing football weather, crowded gymnasium bleachers, and bus rides to neighboring schools. "Anything goes" was the attitude for expressing enthusiasm for our school. While some spent evenings stalking athletes' homes armed with rolls of toilet paper for the traditional "teepeeing", others remained content with selling fundraising candy or decorating lockers. The band, cheerleaders, pom pon girls, and various team members created an atmosphere which encouraged even the most timid of fans to cheer the red and white machine on to victory. School spirit was depicted throughout the student body with Indian t-shirts, club jackets, buttons, pom pons, team hats, and various other paraphernalia dashed with red and white. Students quickly learned that exhibiting Indian spirit left the true fan with a heaping dosage of pride and loyalty for Niles West.

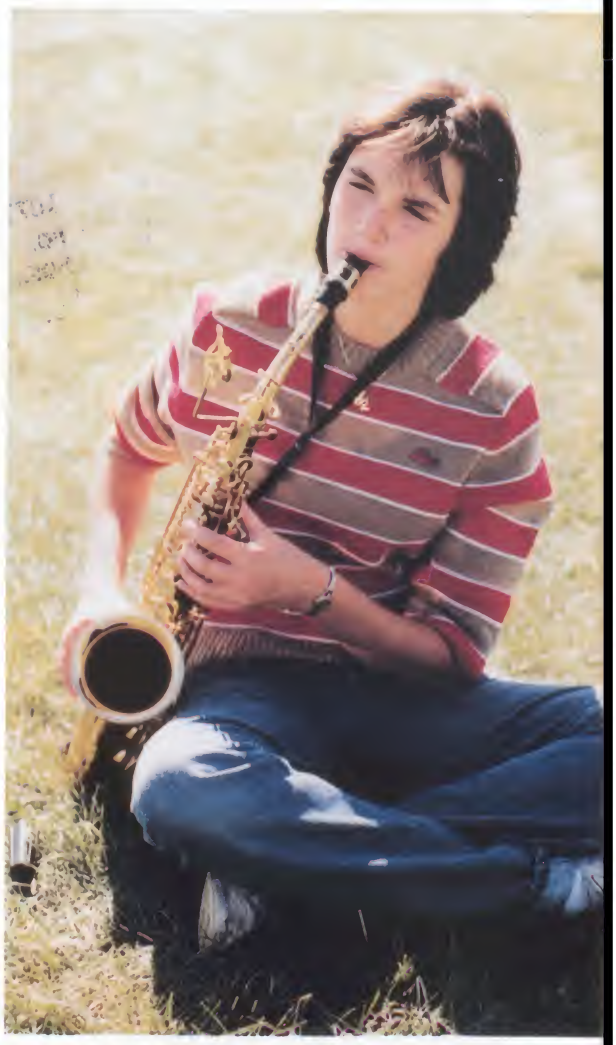
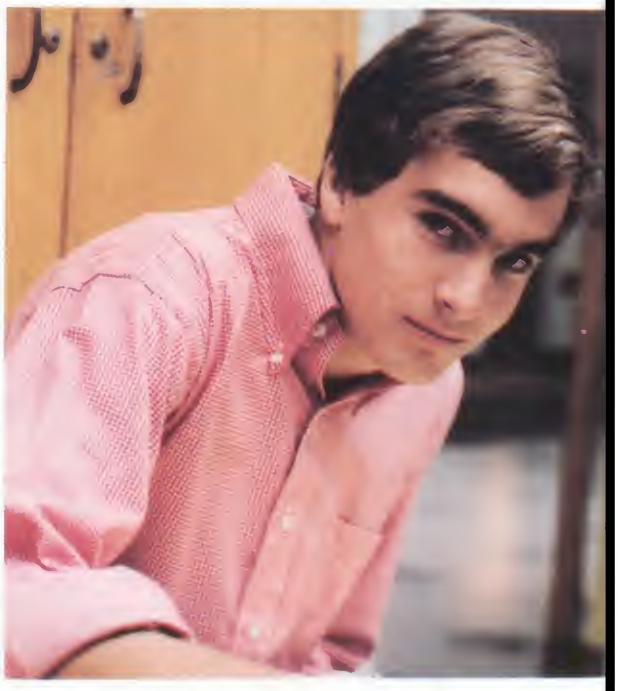
SPIRIT

WESTHI FOLLOWS A CLASS ACT

Sometimes crazy, while always colorful and creative, people at West seemed to find a unique yet wonderful way to remain in style. Never satisfied with second best, we reached the height of fashion in preppy shirts and Frye boots, cruised in Renegade jeeps and sparkling corvettes, and came forth with an intense flair for "doing our own thing". And, as characteristic of Westhi students, this mode of expression was carefully executed with a touch of class.





IN STYLE

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT

The 1980 Homecoming week got off to an enthusiastic start with the in school pep Assembly held on Wednesday, October 17. The spirited crowd was entertained by the award winning pom-pon girls, the vivacious cheerleaders, and the energetic Indian. The program introduced the members of the Homecoming committee as well as the nominees for ourt, queen, and king. Inspiring speeches were given by varsity Indian coach Don Huff and Gerald Turry, athletic director.

Basrak field was lit up with excitement from the crowd as well as from the new lights at the Twilight pep rally held on October 16. The highlights of the evening were the traditional flashlight routine performed by the pom-pon girls and the naming of Jack Havdala as Homecoming king and Faith Amorantos as queen along with senior court members Nancy Buffo, Mary Flood, Bill Johnson, Steve McManamon, Peter Rolick and Nancy Tuzzolino, and junior court Linda Weiss, Liz Kogen, Lauri Feldman, Ken Sall, Alan Keller, and Paul Katzowsky.

TRADITIONS CREATE ENTHUSIASM

This year's Homecoming Game was preceded and followed by two traditional events. The annual Homecoming Parade made its way down the streets of Lincolnwood, Skokie, Morton Grove, and Niles at 2:00 PM, the afternoon before the game. Leading the parade were Jack Havdala and Faith Amarantos, Homecoming King and Queen. They were followed by their respective Courts and three categories of floats. A $20 cash prize was awarded to the winner of each category.

Following the game, the Ice Cream Social took place. Students and faculty chose from a variety of flavors and toppings. Instead of the usual band, a Disc Jockey entertained in the Main Gym. Included in the evenings activities, was an alumni reception hosted by the Students Activities Board. Old yearbook pictures were also displayed for all students and alumni to see.

INDIANS FACE CHALLENGE ON BASRAK FIELD

This year's homecoming theme was "Push the Warriors back with an Indian attack." Unfortunately the Niles West Indians just couldn't attack and the Deerfield Warriors pushed them back. The Warriors scored a touchdown in the first, the third, and the fourth quarters. The Indians only touchdown was scored by senior Mike Froemming with a minute left in the game, and the unhappy final score was 21 - 6. Even though there were not very many exciting plays, this game was considered one of the most challenging games since the Indians played number one New Trier East. Despite the loss of the Niles West Varsity football team, the 1980 Niles West homecoming will always be remembered.

"THE ROSE" BLOSSOMS INTO SWEET SUCCESS

This year's homecoming dance, "The Rose," marked the end of the weekend's activities. The band "Graffiti" supplied the music for everyone to dance to. The Student Activity Board members, who sponsored the dance, did a super job of decorating the gym. With roses on the tables and along the walls, the theme of the dance was obvious. This year's overwhelming turnout filled the gym. The crowning of the 1980 king and queen was the highlight of the evening. Faith Amarantos became the new queen, and starting a new tradition at West, Jack Havdala was crowned as the king.

Clockwise Vito Congine and date share a few stolen moments. A newly crowned king and queen dance with their dates. Snuggle close. Kim Sorenson enjoying her dates company. "Graffitti" entertains at Homecoming '80. It's all in the eyes.

THE FUTURE AWAITS YOU

Once again representatives from almost 200 colleges attended this year's College Night on September 23. Each college had their own booth where representatives spoke to college bound students. Pamphlets and brochures were given to prospective students. Both students and parents flanked the high school's gymnasium.

Opportunity Plus Careers Night was the second part of the successful "Days of Decision." The program was designed to provide the students of Niles West with up-to-date information on careers from active people in the work force. Senior Jenny Hold said, "Careers Night was very helpful to me. I learned which fields were open and which would be good to go into at this time. Careers Night helped me to decide what I want to do after college." She went on to say, "I feel that it is a fantastic idea and that all students should go to it. It really helped me to decide my future." The highlight of Opportunity Plus Careers Night was the landing of the Army and Coast Guard helicopters on the Oakton lawn.

NILES WEST OPENS ITS DOORS TO PARENTS

On Wednesday, October 22, 1980, Niles West held an open house. The purpose was to show the parents of Niles West students what the day consisted of for his or her son or daughter. Other than just attending the classes of their sons or daughters, the parents were able to visit with members of of student services including; the Director, Guidance councelors, Psychologists, and Social Workers in the Oakton street lobby. A mini-concert of the Niles West String Orchestra was presented in the student lounge. Later that evening, the school's song and dance group, Westones, performed for the parents. Demonstrations such as ceramic, sculpture, and drawing were going on throughout the night. There were additional activities on display in the cafeteria including; Forensics, National Honor Society, and the Student's Activities Board. The evening indeed turned out to be a success; as one parent said, "I found the evening to be both enlightening and entertaining."

The sophomore class cabinet sponsored their annual frosh-soph mixer on Friday, October 10, 1980. Held in the main gym and the girl's gym, the mixer promoted the theme of making new acquaintances and having a good time.

A combined total of 400 freshman and sophomores attended the mixer. 15 year-old sophomore Richard Schwartz was quoted as saying, along with many other students who attended the mixer that, "I found the frosh-soph mixer to be one of the more fun and interesting school activities at Niles West that I have attended."

The evening consisted of numerous activities. A live band played in the main gym for dancing and listening. In the girl's gym, various forms of competition were organized. Students could participate in volleyball, basketball, and math competition. A large number of students participated during the course of the evening.

A free senior citizen matinee on November 6th in the auditorium was first on the schedule. Two regular performances on the evenings of November 7th and 8th completed the run. The combined performances resulted in the largest audience ever for a non-musical production.

POW WOW PRESENTS "LIFE AMERICAN STYLE"

Pow Wow, Niles West's annual student produced musical comedy-variety show, was performed January 14-17. The theme of this year's show was "Life American Style". It depicted the lifestyles and institutions of America, including the death penalty, draft registration, father and son talks, the importance of designer clothes, and teenage pregnancy. Written and directed by seniors Dan Blackman and Elizabeth Gump, the variety show began on the alien planet Nebbish. Being forced to abandon the planet, the inhabitants of Nebbish chose Earth as their new home. After the aliens arrived, they observed our lifestyles, which occupied the rest of the show.

Friday, February 6, and Saturday, February 7, were the two dates set aside for Orchesis to perform a culmination of different dances worked on during the year. There was a total of fifteen dances performed. The music accompanying the dances presented a wide range of interests and ideas: Whip It by DEVO, The Concerto For Prime Time, and Cockatoo by Spyro Gyra to name a few.

Other acts were The Ecstacy of Gold, On the Street Where You Live, Hot Lunch Jam, Wheatland, Mr. X, A Chorus Line, Bye Bye Love, Boss Talk, Rose Pizzicatto, Shaft, and West Side Story. CLUBS ENCOURAGE PERFORMING ARTS

There is more to dancing than meets the eye, as this year's Niles Orchesis Dance Company has discovered. Creativity and self expression through dance were among the goals of this year's troupe. Dedicated members were busy several nights a week from September through May, pursuing the art of dance. Due to the increased interest in the club, Orchesis divided into senior and junior members. This gave more girls a chance to participate. Orchesis began their year with a jazz demonstration at Open House. This served as a stepping stone to the culmination of their hard work, their annual dance show "Steppin' Out" in February. Afterwards they were occupied with dancing in benefits and at junior highs. The exciting year ended with the girls' teaming up with the band and orchestra to travel to New Orleans for the annual tour. There, the company dazzled the crowds with their snappy steps while the band and orchestra accompanied them. President Yvonne Johanson, Vice-President Heather Joseph, Secretary Jamie Zucker, and Treasurer Joyce Chams, along with their highly talented sponsor, Ms. Gail Lukasik, helped organize the group to work together and plan fund-raisers and other successful projects.

The Ushers Club is a service organization that assists in assuring the smooth operation of school productions. These friendly students take tickets, hand out programs, and seat the audience. The ushers get to attend performances of plays, musicals, concerts, and other functions at Niles West. The club's sponsor is Miss Terese Klinger.

The purpose of Technical Service Club is to train people in running the different aspects of technical theatre. People are trained in order to give them experience in running equipment such as lights, sound board, which they will operate during the shows. The club holds various fund-raisers and participates in the activities of the Thespians. The club officers are Pam Wexler, Marc Small, and Lisa Tomleoni.

The Niles West Thespians had a busy year this year. With the direction of Robert Johnson, Cynthia E. Medical Careers Club
DECA
Key Club

FUTURE PLANS AND HELPING OTHERS FOCUSED

The real purpose of the Medical Careers Club is to encourage students of all levels to thoroughly explore all of the many possibilities available in the medical and health fields. Sponsored this year by the speech therapist, Mrs. Korol, the club had various medically related guest speakers, plus field trips to hospitals and nursing homes in the area. Occasionally, films about special areas of particular student medical interest were seen. The Club had four officers this year- Lynn Kagehiro as president, Jody Robbins as vice president, Robin Glassner as treasurer, and Paul Wilm as secretary.

Students who enroll in DECA gain knowledge in the art of retailing. Participating in competition as a club allows the members to utilize the fundamentals acquired in the daily Distributive Education Class.

One of the most important gifts that one human being can give to another is the gift of compassion. Because ours is an individualistic and competitive society, we sometimes ignore the needs of others. The Key Club program allows people to work with those less fortunate than themselves. By coming in contact with those who can't walk, talk or see we realize how lucky we are. Key Club's purpose is to help others, and in that pursuit the greatest satisfaction is found. This gift of caring will remain with club members for a long time. Key Club is meaningful because it represents idealism put into practice.

PEP SQUADS PROMOTE SPIRIT

Whether the Indians were on the warpath, or being scalped themselves, those enthusiastic and energetic pom-pon girls and cheerleaders were there to boost them on through the 1980-81 football and basketball seasons.

The cheerleaders provided the moral support necessary to any athletic team effort. Their spirited yells and sensational mounts produced excitement to keep the crowd interested in even the most predictable game. For the varsity squads advice was offered by Miss Pat Wahlstrom. Mrs. Barbara Chausow and Mrs. Marian Jaeschke lent their assistance to the sophomore and freshman squads.

Halftime would not be half as enjoyable without the pom-pon girls performing one of their eye-opening, show stopping routines. The time and effort these girls put into daily practices was fully appreciated by fans at every pep assembly, football, and basketball competition throughout the year. Guidance for the squad was given by Miss Sharon Corombos.

Timers' Club is a service organization which assists the officials at all home meets. The students kept lane times, worked the recall ropes, announced the events, worked the kyroscope, and kept score. The club is sponsored by Miss Geri Nash; its club officers included Michelle Dolce, President, Pam Smith, Vice-President, Linda Bernheim, Secretary, and Gretchen Edwards, Treasurer.

N-Club prided itself in promoting the image of good sportsmanship, fellowship and school spirit. To be eligible for consideration by N-Club, athletes must earn their major "N". Letters are awarded to outstanding athletes competing on the varsity level.

Photo Club is a group of students who share the common interest of taking and developing photographs. One of their most recent projects is a West-campus photomural for the Administrative wing of the school. Member Tom Weiss recalls, "The Photo Club gave me the chance to work in a darkroom for the first time and learn the process of developing pictures." The club's sponsor is Mr. Gary Davis.

Art Council is a club which gives interested, art-oriented students time to express their creativity in a relaxed atmosphere. They engage in different activities, both socially and artistically stimulating. In the beginning a lone band of talented artists came together and formed Art Council. Together they raised money and visited art museums and participated in art-related projects. The purpose of Art Council is to stimulate the growth of art by the members.

PUBLICATIONS ENHANCE WEST

Opus I, Niles West's art and literary magazine is a medium for students to express themselves creatively. All Niles West students were encouraged to submit work. Opus I looked for a wide variety of entries and tried to appeal to all of Niles West's students. Art entries included poems, short stories, and riddles. The best of the two categories, art and literature, were sent to a panel of judges for competition. The two winners were awarded a cash prize. Opus I was under the guidance of sponsor Mrs. Jeanne Denichs. The few minor changes in the club's structure included an elected editor rather than an appointed one and a larger executive board. The club, itself, met every Thursday to review material submitted during the week. The club decided what would go into the magazine and designed the format. The magazine was distributed in April. Opus I staff encouraged all students to take advantage of this opportunity to have their best works published as a part of school history.

The 1980-81 West Word staff brought interesting, informative newsworthy events to Niles West through its biweekly publications. The staff, headed by Editor-in-Chief Ross Lirtzman, News Editor Rachel Heyman, Features Editor Debbie Weiss, Editorial Editor Monica Cohen, Sports Editor Cindy Doppelt, and Photography Editor Steve Rabin, captured the headlines as they occurred and reported them with precise, accurate details. Consisting of a small yet able staff of hard-hitting, tough-nosed reporters and photographers, this year's newspaper covered everything from important curriculum changes to personal profiles of West students with unique hobbies or jobs.

STUDENTS DEVELOP LEADERSHIP SKILLS IN P.E. PROGRAM

Leaders is a unique program that helps develop the leadership skills of its sophomore, junior and senior participants. Girls applied for entrance in the leaders program as freshmen, and now meet 6th period for training in various areas. These girls assist teachers in their P.E. classes and help students with different activities. Says sponsor Lee Heren, "Leaders helps train girls to be better leaders, and to find enjoyment in P.E. class." Senior Cindy Doppelt feels that the leaders program is "a great way to develop leadership qualities by having the responsibility of helping your peers." Senior Nancy Tuzzalino likes being a leader beacuse "you meet alot of people you might not have had a chance to know. I just wish more people would get involved in the program."

Student Activities Board

STUDENTS MEET GOALS AND INCREASE LEADERSHIP

The Student Activities Board organizes school and social activities for the entire Niles West student body. A few of the events they sponsored this year were the twilight pep rally, the ice cream social, and the Homecoming Dance. The sponsor of SAB was Larry Erickson and the club officers were Abby Ginsburg, President, Jody Margolis, Vice-President, Vicki Shandling, Secretary, Jodie Silverstein, Treasurer, and Tammy Liametz, Publicity.

The Student Representative Assembly is an organization which does exactly what its name says. The group acts as an intermediary between the students and the school board. SRA is the only all student government in Niles West and is sponsored by Gerald Boevers.

The major goal of AFS is to raise money for scholarships and to assist in the participation of study abroad. This year five foreign exchange students were hosted: Navine Fouad from Egypt, Niklas Forser from Sweden, Miriam Cuatrecasas from Spain, Norbert Meyer from Germany and Helen Verity from New Zealand.

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to render service to the students, the school, and the community. Projects undertaken in '80-'81 to help realize this goal were: a school-wide holiday toy drive to benefit needy children, visits by members to hospitals and senior citizens' homes, and a contribution of money and time which resulted in a gift to the school.

FACETS OF SPEECH EMPHASIZED IN DIVERSE ACTIVITIES

Periodically throughout the year, the normal day for the students of Niles West was interrupted. This break was to go see a person or persons give a speech to the students on various topics. These interesting speakers were brought to the students by Forums. What is Forums, you ask? As English teacher Thomas McMahon put it, "Forums is a program designed to complement the academic curriculum by providing challenging speakers and opportunities for stimulating discussion in the areas of the arts, politics, sports, and public affairs." In the past, Forums has had many interesting speakers including; Mrs. George Bush, Richard Daley, and former Cub pitcher Ken Holtzman. On November 27, Forums had a presentation called "Inside Skiing". A representative from Spoke and Ski shop in Skokie presented a film about a group of teenagers who had never skied before and their experiences while learning how to ski. Forums hopes to present such interesting and varied topics in the future as they have in the past.

Debate is a two-person activity stressing argumentation and presentation on a variety of issues. This year's National High School Debate topic was: "Resolved: That the Federal Government should initiate and enforce safety guarantees on consumer goods." Two-man teams argued both the pro and con sides of this statement throughout the year at tournaments involving 10 to 100 schools. The local competition in the northern Illinois suburban area was thought to be one of the toughest in the country.

Keeping this in mind, the Niles West Debate Team operated in full force for its second year under the direction of Lorelei Pettigrew, an alumnus of Northwestern University and a previous high school and collegiate debater. After several successes last year at the novice level, the team members are experiencing the challenge of varsity level competition. Through 1980 the Niles West squad has attended seven tournaments, including Glenbrook South High School and Northwestern University Invatational, at which they competed against teams from around the country. At least seven more tournaments were battled in 1981, culminating in the National Forensics League Sectionals in March. Julia Bienias was the President of the Niles West Debate Team.

Forensics is an interscholastic speech club which was reactivated for the year 1980-81. Our students participated in tournaments throughout the northern section of Illinois.

There are many different competitive events such as: radio speaking, the reading of poetry, and humorous or dramatic cuttings from plays. Forensics is open to any Niles West student who has an interest in theatre, communications, or sportscasting. The sponsor of the club was Arnold Agnos. Good morning, today is . . .

Every morning during homeroom, Junior MaryAnn Kenmotsu and Senior Karen Klemens, attempted to entertain and inform fellow students. They brought us daily news events of the school's triumphs and defeats, as well as warnings from the deans and messages of caution or congratulations from other administrators.

German Club
Spanish Club
Science Club
Math Team

The German Club enhances and promotes the learning of German by exposing students to German culture in a concrete way: visits this year included a trip to German stores and restaurants, and a field trip to German Town, Chicago. German Club experienced a German Christmas party. There were 50 members in the club, and are still "DIE BESTEN". The Club was sponsored by Mr. Brink and Miss Beck. The president of the club was Kurt Lemke, Vice-President Pheodora Liou, Treasurer, Nancy Gussin, and Secretary, Tina Venetas.

The Spanish Club was a new club at Niles West this 1980-1981 school year, and they planned many different activities. The most outstanding, perhaps, was the planning and taking of a study trip to Mexico for the students at Niles West and the students at Niles North. In order to defray the cost of the trips to the students, many fund raising activities were carried out between fall and spring.

The students met every two weeks and they had refreshments at their meetings. Constructing a "piñata" was a December activity. The "piñatas" were broken at a party for the club before winter vacations.

The sponsor of the club was Mrs. Herminia Lopez, born in Chile, transferred from Niles East where there was a successful Spanish Club in existence for a long time. Club officers included: Margarita Santalier, President, Giselle La Borde, Vice President, Elizabeth Travis, Secretary, and Lettie Vargas, Treasurer.

The beginning of the '80-'81 school-year marked the beginning of one of Niles West's newest clubs, Science-Fiction and Fantasy Club. It was formed originally for the exchange of S-F-F books, music, art, etc. Through the year, it began to take on additional purposes. The game 'Dungeons and Dragons' and the creation of the club's own 'world' were just a few innovations. The club also considered establishing a book club, using Niles East's S-F-F collection, donations, and books bought by the club members, who would be able to 'check out' the books for a period of time.

The club's 20+ members planned to attend conventions, see plays, and/or movies and work out D and D competitions. They also considered a S-F-F news letter. This new club was sponsored by Mr. Stan Jones and some of its members included, Karin Goldstein, President, Sharon Murphy, Vice President, and Mitch Gittelman, Secretary.

The Niles West Math Team excelled this year, placing high in several mathematical competitions, including the North Surburban Math League, the Illinois Math League, the Atlantic-Pacific Math League, the Illinois State Math Tournament, and the Annual National Math Contest. The team members enjoyed pitting their intuition, skill, knowledge and creativity against other students from around the state and country in solving challenging math problems. Math team members found this pursuit stimulating, instructive and most of all, fun. The Math Team officers this year were Steve Pang, President, Frank Miller, Vice-President, Karen Lee, Secretary, and David Erickson, Treasurer.

Computer Club
Chess Club
Ecology Club
Aeronautics

The Computer Club develops knowledge of, and experiences with computer systems. Activities this year of the Niles West Computer Club included: Open House- the members of the Computer Club prepared a display for parents. The programs on display were classic interactive programs. These programs included Ron Steiner's Mastermind program and Gary Kremen's Moonlander program. Science Fair- Computer Club's display for the Science Fair contained all of the programs from the Open House plus several others. Large crowds of students and parents were attracted to this display. Computer Contest- the Niles West Computer Club team competed against other schools Independent Projects- The two main independent projects were both done on micro-computers. Mitch Kite wrote several business programs. Gary Kremen devised several statistical programs and a program that computes pi. This year's Computer Club, sponsored by Mr. Stanley Weitzenfeld, has been among the most successful in many years due to new leadership and new initiative. Some members included Gary Kremen, President, Mitch Kite, Vice-President, Ron Steiner, Secretary, and Bob Marmelstein, Treasurer.

The Niles West Chess Club is a member of the North Surburban Chess League and play matches with other high schools such as Niles North, Maine West, and Highland Park. There are two divisions, North and South.

Every year the team plays in the Illinois State Chess Tournament, held in 1980 at Waubonsee Junior College near Aurora. Niles West finished near the middle of the standings with about a fifty/fifty rating.

The state tournament requires eight men on a team, while the league uses five players on a squad. Members this year included: Steve Bychowski, Carlos Fahdel, Dan Aberg, Jay Zeff, Neal Ratner, Todd Kaplan, and Steve Pang.

Starved Rock, and Wolf Road Prairie are several of the nature areas that the Niles West Ecology Club visited in the past several years. On these trips they attempted to note plants and those animals that can only live in these specialized areas. The club has been helpful in the beginnings and development of Niles West's own restored prairie by gathering, preparing seed, and weeding as well as planting greenhouse-grown seedlings. Under the leadership of sponsor Mr. G. Firak, the club has had a successful year.

The Aeronautics Club is one of the oldest organizations at Niles West. Its primary aim is to provide interested students with a chance to design, build and fly model aircraft and rockets. The club alternates between airplanes and rockets depending on the season. In the fall, airplanes were flown; the winter is spent flying rockets, and building or repairing airplanes for spring use. Several group projects such as a 9 ft. long rocket and an 8 ft. dirigible have been built and flown. The club sponsored a balloon race last year to raise money for these projects. The club was sponsored by Mr. Wayne Rogoski and club officers included David Schwarz, President, Aron Feinberg, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, Elliot Kravetz.

BLUE MEETS RED

For 20 years, teams from East and teams from West have met. The two teams once again met this season; the imminent unification was finally realized. An aura of uncertainty preluded every aspect of the pre-season preparation. It seemed that the team itself was the only group of people who never doubted that the blending would be successful. Any doubts were quickly dispelled by three come from behind victories in the first three games. The Indians defeated Maine West, Glenbrook North, and Waukegan West, before a disastrous performance led to a thumping by #1 ranked New Trier East. The Indians rebounded with two successful efforts against highly regarded Oak Forrest and Maine South. It seemed fate paid back the Indians for defeating Maine South at their homecoming by being handed a loss to Deerfield at our own homecoming. The Indians then took the road to near Champaign-Urbana. There they encountered Rantoul, "the parade of Central Illinois", and left victorious. The season ended on a sour note with a loss to Evanston. Overall the team finished with a 7-3 record in the toughest conference in the state, the Central Suburban League North.

TACKLERS MAKE PROGRESS

Coach McCarrell felt players from East and West greatly helped the team this season. The record was not very good, but he did see progress. An example was the last game against powerhouse Evanston. The Indians held the lead until the final seconds, when they were finally scored upon. Key players were J. Coursey, K. LeComte, and M. Dahm.

VARSITY KICKERS PLAY HARD; JV MOVES ON

The varsity team started the season with very high hopes. Both the Jrs. and Srs. were undefeated as Freshmen. Now with one year of varsity experience under their belts, the two highly talented classes united as one team. The season got off to a good start with a 4-0 romp over Catholic League Champ Gordon Tech. Conference seemed to be a cake walk as the strong Indian team out passed and shut out everyone, until the final conference game against Maine South. The Indians saw their early lead fade with sun and a late effort was negated by a direct kick in the near darkness. Fortunately, Maine South's record was slightly tarnished with two ties, so the Indian kickers shared the conference championship with them. However, the team did not fare as well in non-conference play. For some reason the kickers could not maintain the intensity and discipline to sustain their potent short passing game. This inconsistency led to a 5-4-1 mark in non-conference play as opposed to an outstanding 4-1 record in more difficult conference action. The Indians had set their sights on making the finals of the state tournament but that dream ended all too soon in the final game of the subsectional round. The kickers beat sister school Niles North in the first game of the tournament, but the trip to Evanston turned out to be the last game of the season. The Indians had managed to blank the Wildkits 2-0 in their first encounter. A fourth quarter flurry wasn't enough to overcome Evanston's earlier scores. The 2-1 loss bumped the Indians from the tournament and gave them a 10-5-1 record for the season. The J.V. soccer team finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. Although there were no outstanding individuals, it is hoped that many of the players will move up to varsity next year.

ENTHUSIASM REMAINS THROUGH DISAPPOINTING SEASON

Problems led the Sophomore Soccer Team to a disappointing 1-13-1 record for the 1980 season. Unfortunately, they had to forfeit many of their games due to technicalities. These setbacks didn't stop the team's enthusiasm. Coach Zorn saw a great deal of improvement in the team's passing skills. Alex Engels, George Hurtado, and Stephan Harris were outstanding players.

Both Freshmen teams had average seasons. The players learned basic skills from "A" Coach Porter and "B" Coach Klebba. Both had a strong defense, but lacked speed. Notable "A" team players were B. Margolin and A. Straub. Prominent "B" team players were R. Meyer and R. Erlebacher.

SWING TOWN

Coach Hoeppner was very pleased with the varsity golf squad. The overall record for the team was 3 wins and 8 losses, but as Hoeppner commented, "At least we didn't get skunked!" Senior Rob Chapman consistently scored low, and made it to sections. One pleasant surprise was sophomore Peter Joseph, who made the district meet. The highlight of the season was the defeat of Deerfield, the conference champions. Since many juniors are returning, the outlook is bright for next year. The frosh-soph team also scored a few victories. One golfer humorously came up with a motto about his play: "It was easier to replace the turf than to returf the place!" Coach Galla was very happy with the improvement of sophomore Mark Fallaroni. Both squads hope for continued success next year.

COACHES SPARK STRONG COMPETITION

The 1980 Girls' Tennis Team started the season with a new coach, Ms. Matlak, and a solid win over Maine East. Barb Parks and Chris Conton led the way to a fourth place team finish in the Crystal Lake Invitational by placing second in a strong field of competitors. Varsity came in third in conference led by Lisa Cohan and co-captain, Margie Kong, who each placed second in their respective second and first singles position. Jr. Varsity co-captain, Judy Koehler and her partner, Jamie Berg also had a strong showing in conference. The team ended the season with an excellent fourth place finish in the toughest district in the state with the help of Mr. Krone, and Mr. Winans, in addition to Coach Matlak. Overall both Varsity and Jr. Varsity finished the season with winning records — a result of the hard work and team spirit of the players and Jr. Varsity coach Mrs. Schultz.

RETURNING PLAYERS LEAD TEAM TO SUCCESS

The Niles West tennis team had a highly successful season in '81. Returning varsity players Rob Chapman, Eric Hinchman, Larry Kong, Howard Korey, and Neal Marcus formed the nucleus of the team. The remainder of the squad come from a number of talented players. They included seniors Steve Deer and John Shapiro and juniors Mike Attia, Steve Charous, Matt Goren, Frank Miller, Murry Mizock and Tom Rifken. First year varsity coach Frank Sachs was impressed with the level of play at Niles West and looks forward to many successful seasons.

They included Steve Dorfman, Michael Korey, Steve Miller, Tom Russo, Michael Wilson, George Pappas, Jeff Nimz, Chuck Goldberg and Elmer Hortilano. Coach Krone believes that these boys will do very well in competition and hopes that some of this years freshmen will be able to help them to a successful season.

The 80-81 Swim Team was the largest in numbers that we've had in several years. It was also blessed with a number of talented swimmers, like seniors Art Milbrandt, Steve Kueller, and Jeff Palenske who will be missed next year along with seven other seniors. This was the first year at West for Coach Don Larson who was a transfer from East along with four East swimmers. They were all pleased with the improved facilities at West. A main goal of the team this year was improvement of each individual regardless of the team's record. They practiced twice a day, even on days of a dual meet, in an effort to place as many swimmers as possible in the State Meet. "We will definitely miss the large group of graduating seniors next year, but with the excellent swimmers on the lower levels and the effect of the newly intiated year round swimming program, we hope to continue to improve," stated the swimming coach.

Although the 1980 Girls' Swim Team's record did not reflect it, the team had a most successful season. It tied the first two consecutive meets and had to swim against some of the toughest competition in the state. The team set 5 new school records. Jenny Lohen, Sabine Plenus, Sandy Lipezker and Arleen Milbrandt set a new school record in the 200 Medley, Sabine Plonus set a new school record for 50 yd. freestyle, Arleen Milbrant, the MVP for 1980, placed 9th in districts, in the 500 and set a new 200 meter record. Sandy Lipezker, in her last season as a Niles West swimmer, leaves holding 4 school records, including 200 freestyle, 100 fly, 500 freestyle, and 200 medley. Special mention goes to Barb Buckley and Miriam Cuatrecasas for their continued high motivation and improved performances as individuals and team members. The team is a young team, and with the outstanding potential talent it should be a challenge in the years to come.

The 1980 Girls' Junior Varsity Swim Team will prove to be the nucleus of girls' swimming for years to come. Ten girls who became versatile swimmers in all events showed that they have the West spirit. Outstanding performances were given by Barb Daehler, Lisa Bielski, Chris Martin and Tamara Uglinica. Several Junior Varsity records fell this season and more will fall next year. The Swim Team also expressed appreciation to the timers, maintenance, and the school for all their help and support throughout the season.

Of the entire swim team, only four were divers. These talented girls dove in ten meets.

Erin Sweeney, senior, placed 9th in districts and 11th in the conference meet. She scored a career high of 159.60 and took six first places in dual meet competition. Erin's highlight was to win the first annual "High Diver-Most Improved Award."

Marie Heigeson, senior, in her first year of diving, averaged 118 points in her ten dual meets. Her steady inspired performance led her to a 9th place in the JV conference meet.

Jacqueline Plonus, freshman, began her diving career averaging 130 points per dual meet. She promises to be an outstanding varsity diver.

Lee Papanek, junior, contributed positively to the JV team by taking 11th place in the conference meet.

Diving coach Gary Davis was very pleased with the development of this year's small diving team. The girls matured quickly, learning difficult diving skills and performing consistently.

This years Boys Basketball Team had a very disappointing season. They finished 6-22 at the bottom of the conference and were knocked out of the state tournament early. Head coach Bob Murphy felt the boys had a good time playing together. A hight-light of the year was the defeat of Maine South at their court, for the first time in fifteen years. Captain D. Kalas and D. Koch were always steady at guards. S. Coward's outside shooting helped to keep many a game close. Another bright stop of the year was the play of Juniors M. The Freshman Girls Basketball Team had a good season this year. Their introduction to basketball here at West went smoothly. They also became familiar with the winning ways of Niles West Girls Basketball. Many of the members of this team will play at the J.V. level next year and will certainly be a great help. Key players were: G. Kibort, D. Estes, M. Silverman, and L. Woodfield. Miss Wajdula was their coach.

WEST PLAYERS BAT .1000

Mr. Galla, head coach of the varsity baseball team this year, has had a great deal of coaching experience. He coached nine years at Niles West, both Freshmen and J.V. teams. He then coached the varsity team for seven years at Niles East and he is now back at West.

The mixture of East and West helped the team a great deal this year. Some of the key members of the team were pitchers Bob Peterson, Leo Moritz and Terry Shapiro; while Ben Froeming and Don Kalas were helpful with their defense and hitting.

Row One: M. Froemming, B. Peterson, S. Goldish, J.K. Benjamin, B. Swerdlow, L. Moritz, Row Two: Coach George Galla, L. Berkson, M. Vishney, K. Sall, Coach Billy Schnurr, Row Three: A. NEW COACH BRINGS HIGH EXPECTATIONS

Mr. Anderson, girls varsity softball coach this year, went into the season with very high expectations. First, to go down state and second, to win conference. Some of his other goals were for the girls to improve their softball skills, learn teamwork, and to have a good time.

Although this was Mr. Anderson's first time coaching softball, he has had a great amount of experience coaching J.V. baseball. During the fifteen years that he coached baseball at Niles West, the baseball team was two state championships, a second place, and numerous conference championships.

GYMNASTS VAULT TO THE TOP

Our gymnastics team is great! We pool our resources so that our team, and each of us, is successful on and off the competition floor; we try hard to keep our grades at the level of our gymnastics expectations; we enjoy spending our evenings teaching the younger children the fun of gymnastics; we realize the importance of friendship with our peers and recognize that there is a world outside the gym; we strive to create an image that is good for sports. Beyond this, we are still ourselves — each different, each successful in her own way.

DEDICATION LEADS TO SUCCESS

Although last year's Boy's Track Team did not capture every award, the team did succeed in capturing several. This year the team plans to do even better. Senior Art Gunther, a middle and distance runner, said, "This year's track team looks like it should be a state contender. Not only have we gained more members, but those that have been on the team have gained experience. Many of the middle and distance runners have a fine background from cross-country, and between seasons we have worked our tails off. Sprinters are looking forward to their new coach and the field men are practicing hard. Coach Savage, Campbell, McCarrell, and Pagnoni give us their expertise. The dedication of the members has created a great camaraderie which lends itself beautifully to the success of our team."

Along with Art Gunther, other middle and distance runners include: Mike Lee, Steve Rosenblum, Bruce Sandlow, Jay Zeff, and Dan Zeller. Among the sprinters on this year's team are, Erlindo Evaristo, Mike Lippe, and Scott Margolin. The field men include Mark McCormack, Norbert Rock, and Victor Wu.

RUNNERS STAY IN TOP SHAPE FOR SEASON

The Girl's Track Team had a very successful season, which began early in February. Mrs. Armour was head coach for the team as she has been in past years. At the beginning of the season Mrs. Armour tested each athlete in different events to discover any hidden talents she might have in a particular area. The team used the indoor Niles East track for practices during the months our track at Niles West was under the snow. Weight training was used to keep the runners' muscles toned up. Plenty of stretching was done before the actual workouts began to prevent injuries. The sprinters practices consisted of a lot of speed work, passing the baton, and starts on the blocks. Mr. Armour, the long distance coach, had his runners work on their endurance. The distance runners ran up to 8 miles a day to keep in shape for their races.

The bowling team has improved greatly from last year when they placed in conference and had no wins. This year the Varsity Team won four dual meets, and things are looking good for next year, since 3/4's of the team are sophomores and freshmen. Patty Zeitler is the only senior, and has been with the team for four years. Lynn Scnildgen, Dawn Winandy, Paige Pawelek, Lisa Singer, Sue Hughes, Patty Zeitler, and Karen Hedberg all had averages over 130 and received recognition for it in conference. Practice and home meets were held at Oakton Bowl. Dawn Winandy took the high game for the conference with 237. Because of their great success, they went downstate.

Most wrestlers agreed that the addition of Niles East wrestlers added to the team's great winning season!

A LOSING SEASON IS STILL A SUCCESS

The Niles West Varsity Cross Country Team experienced its first losing season in over a decade as they were able to only defeat five opponents while losing to eight teams. The team was captained by senior Steve Rosenblum and junior Mike Lee.

Coach Savage suggested that the season was still a success as West easily won the Township Championships with a convincing win over Niles North by a score of 21 to 34 with Rosenblum, Art Gunther, and Lee taking the first three places. West also placed in the top ten of the 46 team Indian Invitational and won a trophy at the Niles Invitational. Coach Savage was especially pleased with individual performances of Art Gunther and Paul Wilm.

Steve Rosenblum was the Most Valuable Runner on the team. He won nearly every meet he competed in and set records at the Township Championships, the Indian Invitational, the Glenbrook South Invitational, the Milwaukee Meet, the Niles Invitational and the Central Suburband League Conference Championships. For the second year in a row Steve was selected to the CSL All-Conference Team.

Coach Campell thought that this years Frosh-Sophomore team did "pretty good." They finished 3 in 6 in the conference meet, while finished 7-3 in the dual meet. He is looking forward to next year because of the potential which the boys hold. Runners which displayed their talents in the sport especially well were: Jim Woodier, Dan Sullivan, and Dave Kobyleski.

FLEET FEET CARRY GIRLS CROSS-COUNTRY TO STATE MEET

The Girls' Cross-Country Team is deemed one of the best in the area after just two years of existence. The team members knew the depth of their school's respect and good wishes the morning they left for the state meet in Peoria. The girls received a send-off from the Niles West Pep Band, other athletes, parents, teachers, and administrators. The flowers, the music, and the tears proved that they were already number one to those who knew them.

The Indian runners earned the right to run before more than 5000 spectators in Peoria on November 8, by taking 2nd place in their district competition a week earlier. During the season they compiled a 10-1-1 overall and a 6-1 Central Suburban League dual meet record. Four of the team members, Jenny Weiss, Laura Friedlander, Sue Rosenblum, and Jennie Campbell were selected 1980 All-Conference runners by the CSL coaches.

The great 1980 season is just a preview to what the West cross-country team will be in the future. There is little doubt that it will be one of the teams to watch in terms of growth and success.—Coach Judy Sloan

This years Girls Volleyball Team had a mediocore season. At times they played very well, and at others they played poorly. Though the record did not show it they really enjoyed themselves. The team began the year with 6 new members, considering this everyone got along very well. Mid-season brought Coach Beeftink a new assistant, Miss Pontow. Her arrival brought 4 consecutive victories. This was one of the highlights of the year along with senior Karen LeHew being named All-Conference. Next year will bring many new faces from J.V. to Varsity and hopefully a little more consistancy.

The J.V. Volleyball Team had a 4 wins, 10 losses record this year under Coach Wodjdula. The coach felt that the girls have a lot of potential and skill but need a little improvement. She also thought that the 4-2 offense was very effective. Outstanding setters were B. Bonkowski and B. Weinstein.

The Frosh Team had a similar 5-8 record. Their inexperience showed early but as the season progressed things came together. Team leaders were: Captains N. Zoros and A. Sundblom

The number of losses shown by both teams is somewhat misleading because several of these games were lost in overtime play.

DECORATED LOCKERS ADD CHEER

What's gray and long and beautifully decorated? That's right! It's a Niles West locker ingeniously camoflauged (well almost) as a cheerful happy birthday greeting!

Everyday Niles Westerners walk down their beloved school's hallways without appreciating the delicate, creative artwork done by fellow students on lucky friends' birthdays. One almost takes for granted the signs, balloons, and streamers hung on birthday lockers unless he or she is celebrating his or her own special day.

In fact, the birthday locker often proves to be a person's most special and enjoyable birthday gift. It serves as a friendly reminder to everyone of a person's birthday while while also inviting others to sign their own personal birthsay greeting (or anonymous romantic offer, as the case may be!).

Fortunately, the idea of the birthday locker has branched out into the fields (or lockerooms) of Niles West athletic participants. On teams such as Girls Gymnastics, Cross Country, and Track, busy little "pixies" can be found. Their job is to decorate lockers before a competitive meet in order to wish a fellow teamate good luck. This "pixie" practice often serves as a morale booster for the girls, and in the end, for the entire team.

Hopefully, this unique and inventive tradition of locker decorating will continue at West. Being greeted on the morning of your special celebration by colorful balloons, streamers, and spirited words by good friends is enough to brighten up even the drabbest locker while also making a birthday or athletic event truly happy. — Debbie Weiss

TOILET PAPER BOOSTS SPIRIT

At 10:00 p.m. a car stops in front of the house. Five girls climb out and creep towards it. One girl places a mysterious object inside the screen door and hurries away.

Are these girls robbers? No, these girls are Midnight Riders. The mysterious object is merely a poster. These girls, armed with handfuls of toilet paper, cover the trees, lampost, basketball net, and house before scurrying away, leaving behind a snowy white mess.

The night before a football game the Midnight Riders have been seen toilet papering houses of the Niles West football players. "The purpose of T.P.ing", thinks sophomore Karen Tenzillo," is to psych the football players up for the game."

Being a Midnight Rider is not easy. If the football game is Friday night, Wednesday night is spent making posters for every team member. On Thursday night the girls go T.P.ing. Everyone piles into 2-4 cars and proceeds to toilet paper their designated areas. Almost 250 rolls of toilet paper will be used for each grade level. The toilet paper comes from grocery stores, 7-Eleven, Convenient, door-to-door scavenger hunts, and the neighborhood Hyatt House and Hilton Hotels.

A novice Midnight Rider is easy to spot. She is the one throwing every available roll into the top of trees, or the one toilet papering the wrong house or car. "It takes practice", comments sophomore Midnight Rider Ellen Spargue.

How do the parents of the football team react to having their houses toilet papered?

At first they do not seem exactly thrilled. In fact, some parents have called the police, while others have threatened to chase the girls with machetes. After this new tradition is explained to them, their attitudes change drastically. Some parents even invite the Midnight Riders into their homes and offer them food.

The football players love all the attention they receive and do not seem to mind the mess created by the toilet paper.

Sophomore football player Dave Fritshall explains, "It shows us someone cares whether we win or lose." Quarterback Mike Yedlin commented, "I love it, except when it rains because the toilet paper becomes virtually impossible to clean up" — Julie Mamett

IDEAS BLOSSOM INTO SUCCESS

The Senior Cabinet has planned and accomplished a wide variety of events and programs throughout the school year. The large and enthusiastic group of girls, led by their advisor Roger Stein, held bake sales, celebrated a Christmas party at the Hull House in Chicago, and planned the senior graduation exercises with much success.

Throughout the year, the cabinet met on Wednesday afternoons during eight period. Each meeting was full of discussions and ideas which blossomed and came to life in the coming year.

All agreed that this year's senior cabinet was a complete success which set a precident for many more productive years to come. As cabinet member Cindy Doppelt said, "We tried out some new ideas this year that were a success. Hopefully this will encourage the futture members to do the same." — Debbie Weiss.

NILES EAST TALENT BENEFITS ACTIVITIES AT WEST

The halls are more crowded, cafeteria lines are longer, and the parking lot is more full. But the addition of over seven hundred new students at Niles West this year has boosted the quality and participation of many activities. The closing of Niles East last spring brought half a school's worth of talent in various activities to go along with that which was already here. Some programs have excelled greatly by having the new students. Although other programs may not have been so greatly benefited, Niles West students have just enjoyed meeting new people.

There was tremendous participation of new students on this years Indian football squad. Half the team was former Niles East players. They helped the team to an impressive 6-3 record. Senior Steve Milewski, starting defensive back on the team, said, "They have improved the team. They gave us more depth. They gave us key people in key positions. We wouldn't be as good without them. I'm glad they came here."

The band, while not getting a great turnout from East students, definitely improved from them, according to Seniors Kelly Chester and Cindy Jiu. Only seven out of the 75 band members are from East. However, they have helped by "increasing quality and leadership," said Kelly. Cindy commented, "They were accepted, that was it." They both agreed that they all consider themselves West people now.

Junior Sue Strongin, formerly in the Niles East choir, is definitely glad she is now in the Niles West choir. "The Niles West choir is much better," she said. "It is better because there are more people than there were at Niles East." Only three East students are in the choir, but they have made a definite contribution.

Junior cheerleader Michelle Dodd is one of four East students on the West squad. She seems to be enjoying it very much. "I like it," Michelle said. "This year it is better. The girls are more together." The East girls have benefited the squad with their talents and by showing how well the schools can unite. — Bruce Hecktman

CHANDLERS GAIN STATUS

What is dark gray, small, and is invading Niles West High School? The Chandler's Assignment Notebook.

You can look at what kids are carrying and many times see a Chandler's Assignment Notebook tucked under an arm. Some of them are decorated with stickers, some with different kinds of clips, and others, just plain blank. If you open one, most likely you will find colorful pages with more stickers and drawings. In a few, you will find homework assignments and dates to remember. Students color in them mainly out of boredom in class or because they don't have anything else in them. Some students think that the stickers are cute and make their Chandler's more colorful.

"I used to draw and put stickers in my Chandler's because I was bored and because it was so bare. Now that I have more homework, I don't as much. I think as you get older, you tend to become more mature," said Janee Kaufman, freshman.

"I never really decorated my notebooks. I think that it's kind of childish. You don't see that many seniors with pictures in their Chandler's. It's just a matter of time before people get out of that habit," said Marianna Feldman, freshman.

Chandler's is not the only brand of assignment notebook on the market. Why do kids tend to buy Chandler's, then? They are usually more costly and do not contain anything different than the colors.

"It's become a matter like clothes. Some kids buy Calvin Klein jeans over some no-name brand. It's kind of," added freshman Marianna Feldman," "the same situation here."

The notebook gives room on each day to write assignments, special events, and important dates to remember. It has an alphabetically organized address and telephone section, but does not have a section to record your report card and/or semester grades.

The Chandler's Assignment Notebook costs $1.89. It has an academic year calendar, assignment recorder, academic schedule, quiz recorder, memoranda, and telephone and address section. — Arbella Odishoo

DESIGNER MANIA HITS!

"Ooo la la Sasson", "If my Calvins could talk I'd be ruined", and "Bon Jour doo doo doo doo doo" seem to be popular phrases in everyday conversation. Not only did these sayings become the commercials, but also the latest fashion. Evidently, a great number of people like the jeans for many reasons. They like the fit, the brand name, or maybe they like the idea of spending so much more on a pair of jeans than the average pair costs.

Some people may like the fit, while others do not. Then, if you look at it again, some people want to look spruced up, while others simply look for comfort. If a person is looking for durability, they would probably choose a dependable brand, such as Levis, that may not be as fashionable. Others need jeans to be stylishly well groomed. There are even people who want a tight fitting pair of jeans to emphasize their derriere. However, there are some who don't care to show off that part of their anatomy.

Styles come and go, just as the designer jeans mania will pass. Surely people will continue to wear these jeans, but the desire to own them will be gone. Some new style will take over these jeans, and everyone will adapt to the newest way of being in vogue. — Joyce Hilger

UNIQUE GARB HAUNTS HALLS

On Halloween, Niles West was extremely energetic. The students and faculty alike were seen in unique garb. While moving through the corridors, one could see clowns and cowpeople, ballet dancers and boxers, and even in the spirit of the occasion, witches and monsters, all dashing around, laughing and joking about each other's costume.

Students had various reasons for dressing up. Sophomore Lory Flech, dressing as a cowgirl explained, "I chose a cowgirl because the costume wasn't hard to make. I had to work after school and I thought it would be comfortable to work in."

Another reason was given by junior Cindy Schulther, as a baby with bottle and teddy bear in hand. She revealed "I needed a costume for a party after school, and knew it wouldn't be too hard to make."

Sophomore Beth Salmon, who was a ghoulish bat, had a question to ask. "Aren't you supposed to dress as a scary monster or something? Well that's just what I did, I'm a scary black vampire bat."

The Halloween spirit wasn't confined only to the student body. A Frankenstein, wearing a blue suit, was seen carrying his briefcase down to the main office; the Frankenstein's name was Mr. Richard Antes, Director of English and Foreign Languages.

The new head wrestling coach from Niles East, Fred Richardi was wearing a pair of glasses with a false moustache and nose. Even as I spoke to him, he joked around by twisting the false moustache. Coach Richardi explained, "I think Halloween should be a fun time, with jokes and laughter, and I'm just trying to do a little of that."

Halloween at Niles West was spirited and happy occasion. The students and faculty had their wit and humor "up" as they dressed themselves in their costumes and paraded through the halls looking their best. — Rob Hill

COLLEGES MAKE THE GRADE

More colleges are represented in the halls of Niles West than at its annual college Night. How? By college T-shirts, of course. Every school from Harvard to Arizona State University is represented on the clothing of hundreds of students. No one is excluded from this trend, but the school usually reflects the wearer's interest.

The most popular college apparel here at Niles West seems to come from the University's of Illinois, Indiana, and Wisconsin. This is reasonable, because the suppliers of these clothes are usually older brothers or sisters attending these schools.

One student explained her reason for wearing college clothing this way. "I wear them because it shows you have contact with college life. Somehow it makes you feel older, more mature." College clothes are a status symbol just about anyone can attain; all one needs is a college to buy them from. They are fairly cheap and can be picked up at any school, no matter how small.

During vacations many students hit several colleges to stock their wardrobes. A vacation on the West or East coast is a T-shirt collecting gold mine. These expeditions can leave the student broke; however, there are ways of getting around this problem.

"I ask my parents to get them when they go out of town," commented Jami Thunholm, junior. "That way I save money and they know what to bring back for me." One avid collector of these shirts is Joel Fink, sophomore. Joel owns a shirt from every Big Ten school plus several others. "The shirts draw attention," said Joel. "I wear them so people remember me." — Denise Stoll

Excessive absences from school. Lack of attendance in (a) specific class(es) (i.e.; gym). When attending a class, one or more of the following occur: a) sleeping b) daydreaming c) writing letters to friends, or d) expressing one's creativitiy on paper (or desks) through pictures or doodles. Additional symptoms: enjoying one's job better than school. Avoiding homework at all costs (or at least putting it off until the night or period before the test). Going out with friends until all hours. An almost constant yearning to "get away from it all". Excessive television watching and radio listening. Non-stop telephone ringing and calling, accompanied by large telephone bills. Conversation topics limited to: a) the opposite sex b) plans for the weekend, holidays or summer and c) college. CURE: GRADUATION!

GETTING TO CLASS MADE EASY

Have you ever felt that getting to class was like trying to get on an "off" ramp? With shoe crowded halls and jam-packed stairways, it's nearly impossible to make your class on time. But why complain? There's not much anyone can do about it, so you may as well live with it, right?

WRONG! It's true you can't do much about crowded halls, but there are ways to make it to class on time. For instance, how many times have you had trouble opening your locker? It's the story of my life. But now I've got the problem licked.

One day, being in a terrible hurry, I stopped at my locker, which, naturally, refused to unlock. So what did I do? I gave that stupid hunk of metal a good hard kick. Ever since then, I've had very little trouble with it. Oh, I've had to remind it every so often who's boss, but you'd be surprised at how quickly a locker catches on.

But so what? I can get my locker open faster. So I save maybe thirty seconds. Big deal! I still have to navigate my way through those crazy halls and up those creepy stairs. Aha! There's a way to solve that, too. It's unorthodox, but when the treat of BAC looms over me, I'll try anything.

What I do is try to think like a motorcyclist weaving in and out of a traffic jam. Instead of standing behind some dumb lug who doesn't move, I take advantage of every little opening, swerving in and out between people, walls and open locker doors.

A word of warning, though. Be careful how you do this on the stairs; one unwary step can send you and twenty other people tumbling to the bottom of the steps. And then, you may never get to class! — Jill Burkel

LUNCH SPOTS SERVE TASTY CHANGE OF PACE

When close encounters in the express lane for the Indian boat special do not appeal to the delicate taste buds of the average Joe Ni-We-Hi, where do they spend their all too short moments and money for culinary delights?

"Nick's Drive-In for gyros because they're the best," said senior Bob Fouty, and pals Jim Murray and Jim Costis echo his sentiments. For a small amount of money you can purchase a hefty gyro with all the trimmings. "It fills you up without leaving your wallet empty" explains why Nick's is so popular.

Many students prefer the convenient franchises located nears Niles West such as MacDonald's, Burger King and Wendy's. Besides not draining the pocketbook, they also offer a variety of items to please different appetites. Ann O'Boyle agrees. "I like Wendy's because they have a real good salad bar." Others like them because the burgers-fries-coke routine is their scene.

For those who are calorie counting, Dairy Delight and Darnetts have everything from carob to cantaloupes, the basic salads to more complicated creations. Anything a dieter or health food lover could lust for is available at either of these hangouts. Senior Karen LeHew likes Dairy Delight because "it's something different, inexpensive, and low calorie."

However, for a small majority of students, home is their favorite hide away for lunch. "There's no place like it," declared senior Anita Shapiro. Besides not spending a penny for food, students can catch up on their favorite soap operas and much needed sleep. Some may even find time to finish that assignment for the next period.

Sure students at West get bored with the same food and faces in the cafeteria every day, but senior Donna Anderson summed up the real reason why people munch their lunch elsewhere. "It gives us a chance to get away, even if it's just for a little while." — Cindy Doppelt

JUNIORS RATE RECORDS

Once again, the Juniors of Niles West proved their versatility in a recent poll concerning interests in favorite musical groups, albums, songs, and types of music. Also asked was what their last album purchase was, and how many albums they bought last year.

When asked what their favorite group or performer was, the majority of students firmly answered, "REO". Students liked REO for a variety of reasons, ranging from their rhythm and songs, to one juniors's view, "They have a beat you can listen to forever." REO beat the second place group, The Who, by a 4:1 ratio. Close behind, there was a four-way tie for third place. The third place groups were: AC/DC, Genesis, Led Zeppelin, and Rush. Of AC/DC, Vicke Lew said, "They have a certain tune in the music that just makes me want to listen!" Further down the list were the Rolling Stones, Ted Nugent, Van Halen, Charlie Daniels Band, Pink Floyd, Supertramp, and Black Sabbath. Valerie Brandt wrote, "Supertramp has been in the business a long time and just keeps getting better." Towards the bottom of the list were the Beatles, Foreigner, The Kings, Barry Manilow, Yes, Cheap Trick, Kansas, and The Doors.

The winner for the favorite album was REO - A Decade of Rock and Roll. Close behind was AC/DC with Back in Black. Further down was Glass Houses by Billy Joel, The Game by Queen, and the musical Godspell. REO also came in first when the juniors picked their favorite songs. In first place was REO with, "You Can Tune a Piano, but You Can't Tuna Fish". "Time for Me to Fly", also by REO, came in a close second. Kenny Roger's "Lady" was a distant third. Barbara Striesand's "I am a Woman in Love" came in fourth place. Also noticeable were "He's So Shy" by the Pointer Sisters, "I'm All out of Love" sung by Air Supply, and Queen's "Another One Bites the Dust".

Almost every type of music ever recorded was picked as a favorite by the students polled. Types chosen ranged at the bottom of the list from Blues to 50's music to Bluegrass to opera to musicals to Swing. Others preferred classical, punk rock, new wave, and hard rock. At the top of the list was Rock and Roll with an astounding number of votes. Much further down the list were soft and mellow rock. REO also won in the category for the last album purchased. Their most recent album, REO - A Decade of Rock and Roll, ranked first. Close behind was AC/DC with Back in Black. Both albums were recent releases. The amount of albums bought last year ranged from as few as one, to as many as fifty. — Lee Gerstein and Rachele DeFilippis

TO BUY OR NOT TO BUY

Precious metals mean precious memories for those who chose to buy a class ring. But with the cost of class rings today, students have a hard time deciding.

According to Yvonne Johanson, senior, her ring will continually remind her of the happy days at Niles West. "It's an everlasting symbol of the high school I will graduate from. It's something I will cherish forever." Heather Joseph, junior, commented, "I can always keep it, just like my memories of school." Senior Kathy Krawsowsky said, "I wanted a nice ring to wear. The class rings are personal, by purchasing a ring order I have something to remind me of highschool later on in my life." It's easy to tell when ring ordering time is near. The pink plastic ring sizers are the fashion of the hour. The trophy case is momentarily upstaged by the class ring display. Students gather during the five minutes passing periods to ponder the variety of styles and details available. According to advertisement posters, class rings are, "a part of today, a part of your lifetime. A pair of jeans should fit your personality . . . could you expect less from your class ring?" Some students disagree. Cindy Doppelt, senior, said, "It's to expensive for just a memory." Senior, Vicki Shandling, believes the rings are not worth it. "A rip-off" were her exact words. Bob Braje, senior, decided against buying one because he just would not wear it.

JoAnn Oppenhiem, senior, is just one who is undecided. "I wanted a ring, just never did get one." She said, "I don't really know why, but now I regret it. Maybe I will get a college ring instead." Senior, Donna Anderson, wears her ring constantly now. She stated, "I doubt I will wear my ring after highschool but I'm glad I bought one."

Whether or not students decide to get a class ring, Niles West memories will remain. But with a unique class ring, students have a personal, tangable memory. -Marie Helgeson

JUNIORS WORK TOGETHER

S mall but mighty aptly describes the junior class cabinet. The enthusiastic members did not let this fact hinder their performance, as they worked together in planning the 1981 prom. Says active member Jodi Stone, "The fact that we were extermly small allowed us to work closely with each other, and closely concentrate our efforts." Amy Alpern added, "We all knew who was in charge of what. If someone had trouble meeting their responsibilities, someone was there to help them out."

Club sponsor Ms. Linda Horwitz is an English teacher and thought the job of sponsor would give her a chance to work with students on a different basis. With her aid, the junior cabinet definatly feels they can accomplish whatever they set out to do.

FINAL EXAMS PROVOKE NEGATIVE RESPONSE

Most students can bear with the amount of wear and tear that our teachers inflict upon us daily. Quizzes and tests, which are merely part of our weekly routine, are accepted as a way of life between September and June. But when it comes to the subject of that 75-minute test called the final exam, teenagers often reveal a sudden negative attitude toward a once acceptable lifestyle.

We all think of and prepare for final exams in different ways. Some people force themselves into total seclusion for a given time, studying as never before. Others of us hurriedly skim our notes while gulping down Wheaties or Lucky Charms the very morning of our exam. Then there are the brave and daring who are determined to ace their desired grade without a moment of studying. One member of this group, sophomore Kim Gross, commented, "I don't prepare for finals. If you ask me, that's a waste of time."

Our teachers tell us that the signifigance of finals is to tell them just how much we've learned in a semester. But students think of them simply as the last chance they have for the grade they've been hoping for or dreading. The final exam score can be the major breakthrough or the downfall of a semester of hard work.

"Finals are ridiculous because they try to cram 18 weeks into three days." contributed senior Bob Heelan. Sophomore Julie Kellman summed up her opinion by saying, "25% of your grade is too much to base them on."

Whatever the reaction may be to the controversial and unpleasant final exam topic, we must set aside our (four letter) comments and attempt to look on the bright side. After all, finals represent the official completion of a busy and vital semester. This prominent cue can offer the opportunity to start anew and consider bettering ourselves past a degree we never before would have considered.-Brenda Moss

SOPHOMORES SPREAD SMILES

The Sophomore Class Cabinet was victorious this year in promoting both school spirit and smiles. Determined to cut down on student apathy, the cabinet met weekly under the sponsorship of Mr. Carl Geis.

"Our cabinet worked well together, and we had a great time too!" said cabinet member Geri Masterson. "A class ought to be able to have lots of fun together, and everybody should have the chance to meet each other. That's something we've tried to achieve this year."

Claiming they had the highest level of school spirit, the sophomores set out to prove it by showing appreciation to the Indians. The cabinet claimed that during the cold, windy football season, there were more sophomores cheering in the stands than any other class.

The cabinet worked on events such as the frosh-soph mixer, the building of a homecoming float, and a co-ed sports night Member Elisa Leberis said, "Things have gone very well, but it would be nice if next years cabinet can produce a better mixer than those of the past!"

Overall, the Sophomore Cabinet had a productive year, and its members are confident that the results will be the same when they are juniors. — Brenda Moss

PRACTICAL CLASSES RATE HIGH

What are some of your favorite classes? Who are some of your favorite teachers? What classes are most beneficial at West? The sophomores had a chance to answer these questions in a recent survey.

The first question, which concerned favorite classes, had suprising results. The favorite class of the sophomores was physical education, which led by a wide margin. Dean Erickson said that "P.E. is the most frequently cut class at Niles West." Maybe its popularity stemmed from the fact that it was described by many as a "blow off" class. Some sophomores decided to eliminate the possible theorizing, and responded that free periods and lunch were their favorites.

The choice of favorite teachers, however, does not coincide with favorite classes. Many teachers were considered "best". Mr. Jones tallied the most points, winning such favorable comments as "easy going", "a comedian" and simply "a good teacher". Mr. Davis ran a close second, but for different reasons. "Mr. Davis lets everyone listen to the radio in art class," said Adele Rose. "Also, she noted, "he teaches on a person to person basis." Mr. Fields was another highly favored teacher. Lisa Shapiro felt that Mr. Fields was "a great teacher. He liked what he was doing, and it showed."

The response to the most beneficial classes was a realistic one. Math, typing, English, biology, and business classes were top scorers. Lunch, although a favorite class, was considered beneficial by few. Aaron Feinberg commented, "Lunch is the only time of the day when I'm afraid to eat!" — Laurie Kahn and Helen Verity

FRESHMAN STUDY

A mong the many additions Niles West had this year, there was one that was instituted last year and continued to remain a part of every freshman's school day. Freshmen study halls were put into freshmen's schedules beginning with the class of 1983. The State of Illinois' requirement of 300 minutes of daily teacher supervision was the reason for this recent addition. Being that eight periods of supervision would fill this requirement, the study halls helped to achieve this goal.

Each freshman student was assigned to study hall during one period of unscheduled time each day. Students were not assigned to them where lab classes were held throughout the week. The study hall, located in room 309, had students in it for the entire day — periods one through ten. Study hall tenth period created complaints among freshmen who were assigned this period because they could have left the school ninth period to go home.

Sophomore Barry Levin had study hall last year and comments, "I think the period is really helpful for students who really do want to study. The students that don't, simply create disorder. If the class were optional, then it could serve with the same purpose by allowing people who wish to study, to study." Sophomore Steve Klein also replied, "It seems to be exactly like the BAC, and you feel that you are being punished for committing no crime."

Mr. Jerome Orr supervised a study hall last year and felt it was the ideal place to study. He also said, "It was effective if you had no more than 30 students. I had 12, but I know some teachers who had 60 or 70 students."

Freshmen Sherri Michaels who attended a daily study hall this year said, "It's a good idea because I do get to finish my homework, but I also seem to get a chance to get some sleep before my next class."

Miss DeFur, who supervised first period study hall this year commented, "One of the major problems is that students often don't bring things to study with them and some don't have a positive attitude toward the purpose of the study halls."-Tracy Miller

FRESHMAN FUN

The 1980-81 Freshmen Class Cabinet, led by president Holly Hollander, showed "a lot of spirit and enthusiasm," according to sponsor Miss Nash.

The purpose of the Freshmen Cabinet is to promote leadership and camaraderie. The freshmen not only demonstrated leadership, they also had fun. "I enjoyed working on the Freshmen Class Cabinet because I met many new people, and we did all sorts of interesting things," decided Secretary Janee Kaufman.

The Cabinet began their activities in October with the builing of their Homecoming float. They continued to meet once a month to plan for the Open Sports Night in the spring. This fund-raiser was held in order to obtain enough money to purchase Class of '84 t-shirts.

Despite other school activities or outside jobs, the students on the Freshmen Class Cabinet worked to help their classmates and future freshmen. "A few people can change and improve conditions for all freshmen classes. We tried to make it so that the Freshmen Cabinets in the years to come will be as enthusiastic as we were, and have as much fun," commented Damien Moshak, Treasurer.

The Cabinet is open to all freshmen interested in planning activities strictly for freshmen. President Holly Hollander said, "I think the Freshmen Class Cabinet is good because all freshmen are involved, and we can make the school work for us!" The Freshmen Cabinet provides good experience for those who plan to be active in student government. "I'm gong to continue working on student activities at Niles West. This is just a beginning."

An important aspect of all class cabinets is that a couple responsible people are chosen to stand for their fellow students. Vice-President Jerry Strange replied, "I like the idea of representing the entire freshmen class."-Lisa Shapiro

MASH TOPS T.V. POLL

In early November, the freshmen class of '84 was given a questionaire asking them about their favorite T.V. show, the amount of television they watched per week, their favorite actor, and the best movie they had seen.

The most popular show with Niles West freshmen is MASH. Other shows that ranked high were: Dukes of Hazard, Soap, Dallas, and Eight is Enough. There are certain reasons why MASH was so highly favored. Tom Syrcek thinks MASH is "realistic, funny, and somewhat entertaining." According to Rich Mayer, MASH ranked high "because the plots are really good." Says Damien Moshak, "it is humorous in many different ways, and it keeps the reality of war and the hardships of people."

The average West freshman watches anywhere from 1-30 hours of television per week. T.V. watching is determined by how much school work, jobs and other extracurricular activities the student had.

The freshmen also rated Burt Reynolds and Bo Derek as the top actor and actress. Others high on the ladder were: Alan Alda, Clint Eastwood, Robert Redford, Cheryl Ladd, Jane Fonda, and Barbra Streisand. Steve Faingold likes Burt Reynolds because he is crazy, while Carolyn Marshall thinks he's a fox. The class of "84 described Bo Derek as "extremely beautiful" and "very funny."

The favored movie was "The Blues Brothers" with John Belishi and Dan Akroyd. Other frequented movies were: "My Bodygaurd" and "The Empire Strikes Back". Though these movies are very different, all were described a being "thoroughly enjoyable." — Alan Zemsky

SCHOOL LEADERS ATTAIN TOP PROGRAM

Dr. Nicholas T. Mannos

The role of the Principal at Niles West is an exciting and challenging responsibility. Since its inception in the 1957-58 school year, Niles West has developed an array of outstanding educational programs for the many students who have been such a vital part of the school's tradition. This optimal educational program has been possible only because of the excellent support which the community, working through its School Board, has provided the school with professional talent and facilities toward the task of attaining excellence in each of our programs. It is a distinct privilege to be a part of a concerned, committed, and enthusiastic community that shows profound concern for its youth. The mission of the Niles West Administration is to strive for excellence in the various facets of our Niles West Program. This goal of excellence extends into the curriculum as well as in our co-curricular activities. This thrust can only be achieved in conjunction with fellow administrators, the faculty, and the noninstructional staff. This spirit of cooperation is one of the vital ingredients that has helped to guide Niles West toward excellence in the short term of our existence as a school. There is nothing more meaningful in a high school than a positive and confident attitude toward self-family and school!

The deans' office has been expanded to accomodate a third dean, needed for the 2,561 students at West this school year. The old method of dividing students by class level is no longer feasible. BOARD FORMS CITIZEN GROUPS

The Board of Education, consisting of Ray Fleischer, President, Mary Helen Archibald, Secretary, Eric Moch, Fred Minkus, Florence Sutker, Lowell Ruffer, and Bertram Meyers, unified into a solid, hard-working group. The Board had many accomplishments this year. They closed Niles East in an orderly fashion, renting it to many primary groups such as Oakton Community College and Centreast Organization. Another of the objectives they accomplished was the formation of citizen groups to help the Board of Education. One of the most important of the groups is the Drug Abuse Task Force.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT GENERATES ENTHUSIASM

Enthusiasm generated by staff and students allowed the Science Department at Niles West to have an outstanding year. Once again the Annual Science Fair was extremely successful. The programs continued to provide an outstanding education for all students and resulted in excellent scores on national tests. Advanced Placement programs continued to prosper at West, which is one of the few area schools to offer APP courses in three disciplines.

MATH DEPARTMENT INCREASES ACHIEVEMENTS

The Niles West Math Department had an outstanding year. Due to the expert leadership provided by the staff, student enthusiasm was at an all time high. Noteworthy achievements consisted of the Math Intramural Competition and the Math Team's success in the North Suburban Math League. Niles West ranked fourth regionally and twenty-sixth in North America in interscholastic competition.

Teachers from East and North divisions became part of the West English Department. With the closing of East, other benefits were derieved. NEW TEACHERS ENHANCE DEPARTMENT

The Social Studies department at Niles West welcomed the addition of Mr. Mel Pirok, Mr. Irwin Drobny, and Mr. John Moshak this year from Niles East. Their excellent teaching background and sincere concern for students greatly enhanced the social studies department. Our freshman students took a newly developed social studies skills test to measure their knowledge in social studies. The Niles West program attempts to teach each student enrolled in the program.

This same test will be given to these students near the end of their junior year to measure the effectiveness of our social studies program in teaching skills.

A program to assist students who are experiencing difficulty in social studies once again assisted a large number of students. Students who are failing or near failing are assigned during one of their free periods for working in the Social Studies Resource Center under the supervision of a teacher. When the student is passing the course he/she is released from the program. Nearly 200 students participate in this support program each year.

P. E. DEPARTMENT GETS IN SHAPE

The Niles West Physical Education Department gained a new thrust this year with the closing of Niles East. Several Teachers became part of the Westhi staff for the second time in their careers, as they had taught here early in their careers. Others cherished the opportunity to work in a new environment. The physical education department began careful review of its facilities and scheduling during the 80-81 year.

There is considerable support to develop a more comprehensive program in both adapted and co-educational physical education. The challenge of the 80's will create new emphasis on greater opportunities for boys and girls in the regular program. The present method of elective scheduling used in girls physical education as opposed to the traditional setting for boys will be broadened.

MEDIA HAS IT ALL

The Niles West Media Center was a large complex located in the center of the West Building. It included the following: 1. A Main Library which housed books, pamphlets, maps, charts and art reproductions. 2. A Library Annex that housed magazines and career and college materials. 3. Graphics area. 4. An Audio Visual area. 5. A listening and Viewing area-these two latter areas housed all the hardware and software.

Students used the facilites for reference work, assignments, or browsing duting any unassigned periods. There were revolving exhibts during the entire school year. Some of them were created with student materials from art-wire sculptures, water colors, or English projects such as sketches and samples of costumes from noted plays. Aside from these types of activites, a National Library Week program was planned around the students with poster contests and a student-performed music session during the school day within the facilities of the Library. In addition, special programs were prepared to commemorate great Americans; for example Martin Luther King, Jr., with book exhibits on black culture in conjunction with an Audio Visual program. In all of these ways the Media Center provided materials and services to facilitate students' personal, social, and intellectual development.

Business Education is the study of the structure and functions of business. Our courses are designed to allow students to begin preparation for careers in business. We have courses in accounting, business management, data processing, sales and advertising, shorthand and typing. CVE ENTERS THE WORK WORLD

Cooperative Vocational Education is a method of instruction which moves the classroom into the "real world of work." It is an instructional plan which combines learning experiences gained in on-the-job supervised employment and vocationally related in-school instruction. The overall objective of CVE is to provide an opportunity for interested students to acquire marketable skills and knowledge in an occupation for which they have an aptitude.

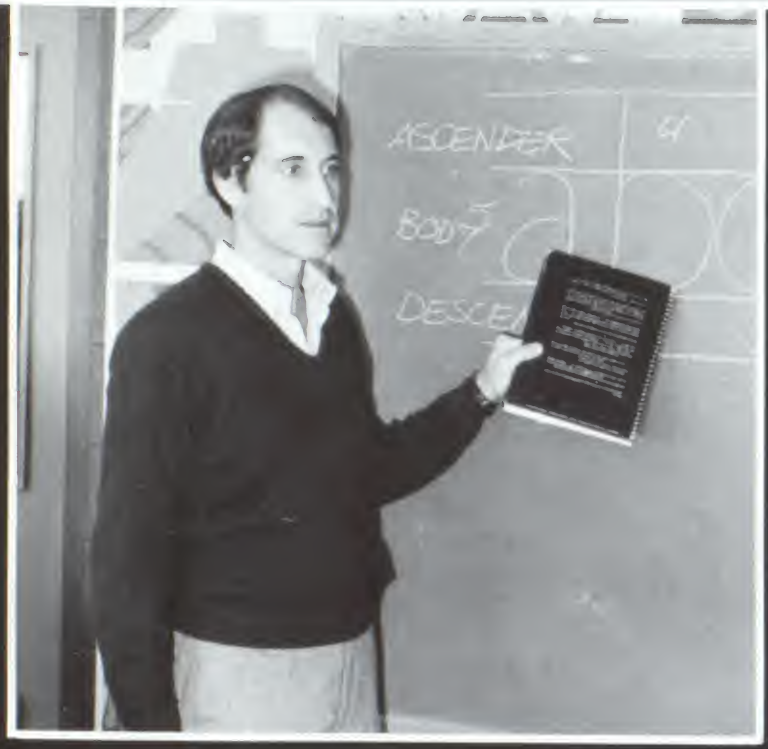
FIELD TRIPS HIGHLIGHT YEAR



Gary Davis

Students enrolled in the Niles West art program participated in a variety of interesting activities. Niles West once again welcomed the return of Mr. Richard Requarth to the teaching staff. Mr. Requarth taught crafts and painting and had his students involved in a variety of challenging and rewarding activities.

A highlight of the year was a field trip to the Fel-Pro Corporation Triple R recreation facility in Cary, Illinois. Student s participated in the field trip journey to the Triple R and completed a series of drawing, painting, and pottery activities centered around natural surroundings. The afternoon session was spent playing softball, volleyball, and swimming.

Mr. Davis's graphics class designed both the Open House and Academic Awards program covers among many other activities. A series of valuable field trips to the art museum and Chicago area galleries allowed students the opportunity to view and study the work by proffesional artists.

A highlight of each year has always been our junior and senior high school art shows. An evening Grand Opening afforded our school and community the opportunity to view the work created by students in the art program at Niles West under the direction of Mr. Tom Blackburn, Mr. Gary Davis, and Mr. Richard Requarth.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION PROVIDES ADVANCED TRAINING

Our Industrial Education program was about how things work. It included courses in aeronautics, auto mechanics, electronics, drafting, metalworking and woodworking. These courses were designed to improve the quality of one's life by helping a person to better understand the materials and processes used in todays highly technical world. Students taking Industrial Arts courses learned through hands on experiences how to design, draw, build, test, and repair many of the devices encountered in their daily lives.

HEALTH EVALUATES PAST LEARNING

The Health Department boasted another full-time teacher, George Galla, as well as Ron Campbell and Sharon Zorn who taught at West last year. HOME EC CHANGES WITH THE TIMES

Home Economics may be the name of the department, however the daily activities that took place in our classrooms covered a much broader aspect of the lives of our students today. While some of our basic instruction centered around the traditional foods and clothing courses, tradition was broken when our students ran a restaurant, studied fashion merchandising, and operated a nursery school. Our courses have been available to boys for many years, and in the last few years we have experienced a substantial increase in our male enrollment.

STRIKE UP THE BAND

The Niles West music program began with the performance of our Marching Band under the lights accompanied by a newly formed 25-member flag corp. The outstanding Niles West orchestra was invited to play for the TeleType Corporation Crusade of Mercy Drive. This outstanding performance was appreciated by the members of the community's largest corporation. This year's May Festival provided Niles West with an exciting and unique concert under the lights in the Neles West stadium. The Grant Park style concert was an overwhelming success. The year came to a close with the entire music department making their annual tour to New Orleans, Louisiana. After an enjoyable train ride, the musicians played concerts at high schools, a hospital, and an outdoor concert at the historic Jackson Square.

SUPPORTIVE PERSONNEL CONTRIBUTE GREATLY

The Action Learning Center was pass-fail alternative study program opened to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, which emphasized learning through participation in activities of the adult world. Students contracted for completion of specific goals and objectives and keeped records of their progress towards these ends. Personal development, social development, and career development were stressed by teachers. New faces were seen, too, in the support personnel who contributed greatly to Student Services. The three new security officers at West were James Puff, veteran of many years at East, Ellen Schwartz, and Greg Welter.

STAFF ADDITIONS SERVE STUDENTS

In the Area of Student Services there were two significant differences: the addition of many new staff members and the addition of full-time staff employees. As a result of the closing of East, the following came to West as full-time personnel: The Speech Correctionist, Rollie Korol; the Reading Specialist, Sharon Corombos; and the nurses, Dorothy Taylor and Barbara Scarbrough.

COUNSELORS AID STUDENTS

With the closing of East, Leonard Winans was added to the counseling staff along with John Chambers, also returning after two years at North. Special activities in the Guidance department include Days of Decision, which was held on September 23 and 25, giving students of the entire district an opportunity to investigate, question and quire information to making career and college choices.

OFFICE PERSONNEL EARNS RECOGNITION

Niles West has always depended on these people for the superb behind the scenes jobs they have performed. This year was no exception; in fact in this time of transition, these special people deserved special recognition. Niles West salutes its secretaries, switch board operators, duplicator, and clerks.

JANITORS KEEP IT CLEAN

Maintaining of the school and its ground was the responsibility of the custodial staff. Although the increased enrollment may have added to their work job they did a terrific job in keeping our rooms and hallways clean and everything in good repair.

With the increased enrollment of this past year, the cafeteria staff was called upon to put forth an even greater effort than they had in past years. Nevertheless they continued to provide hot meals daily.

THE People WHO MADE IT HAPPEN

When Lord Chesterfield wrote a letter to his son in 1746 and exclaimed, "Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well," he might just as well have been refering to the yearbook staff and their dedicated efforts that evolved into Spectrum '81.

Though the staff as a whole is deserving of commendation, several individuals have earned a special pat on the back for their relentless perserverance. I'd like to thank assistant editor Jodi Stone for all her late night cropping, posters, dittos, cooperation and support, photo editor Len Go for keeping his sanity and always coming through in a crisis, section editors Tracey Miller, Happenings, Cheryl Tobin, Up Front, Lisa Russell, Scholastic, Mark Witt, Winners, Marilyn Moltz, Moving Up, and Lisa Sidler, All Together, for putting up with the general harassments and always getting their work in on time. (or shortly thereafter!)

Special credit also goes to Cheryl Tobin for getting candy for our successful fundraiser, Jodi Stone for her great work on the Senior Surveys and graffitti pages, Tracey Miller for her monumental effort on the index and Senior Surveys, and Tom Weiss for always being extremly dependable.

Thanks also to advisors Mr. Jerome Orr and Mrs. Angela Graham for their proofreading skills and good advice, and Jostens representative Mr. Dennis Eder for his help and encouragement.

Together these great "people at west" compiled a fresh, innovative photojournalistic medium filled with memories that will last a lifetime.
